PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE OF FLOODING IN WAYLAND

On Tuesday, January 10, at 7:30 p.m. Pablo Suarez will present a program that examines the increasing risks of extreme events due to land use conversion and a changing climate. What exactly is going on? Should we be doing anything about it? Could the unprecedented spring floods of two years ago in our town center be an example of one of these extreme events? Building on lessons from history, science and each other, the audience will engage in a serious yet fun, participatory game-based activity where decisions will have consequences. Pablo is Associate Director of Programs for the Red Cross/Red Crescent Climate Centre, as well as a visiting fellow at Boston University. A Wayland resident, he has worked in more than 45 countries. His Ph.D. dissertation examined Wayland's 21st-century flood risk.

WAYLAND HIGH SCHOOL–THEN AND NOW

The Wayland Historical Society in partnership with the Wayland Public Library will present "Wayland High School–Then (1855) and Now (2012)" on Sunday, January 22, at the new Wayland High School. The program will run from 2-3:30 p.m. and will cover the history of four high schools in Wayland, culminating in the opening of the fifth new Wayland High School. Through Historical Society archives and Wayland High School graduates, attendees will hear some new stories. Tours of the new buildings will be offered from 1:00-3:45 p.m. For more information, contact Jan Dunn at 508-655-9149 or Carol Repose at 508-358-0768.

E-Reader E-vening

Matt Amory, computer specialist and reference librarian, will demonstrate locating, downloading, reading, listening to, and returning e-content on a variety of devices. Feel free to bring your own device, though we may not have time to work through all questions. Looking forward to seeing you there! Wednesday, January 25, at 7 p.m. in the Raytheon Room.

VALUE LINE INVESTMENT SURVEY ONLINE

Attention Wayland investors! The library now has an online subscription to Value Line Investment Survey-Plus Edition, accessible to Wayland residents in the library or at home with a Wayland library card number. Value Line Investment Survey is a comprehensive source of information and advice on approximately 1,700 stocks, more than 90 industries, the stock market, and the economy. To find this resource, go to waylandlibrary.org and click on "Research Databases."

ACUPUNCTURE 101 — THE WHAT, WHY AND HOW

Janine Agoglia, L.Ac.

Tuesday, February 7 at 7:30 p.m.

People are turning to acupuncture more frequently to battle a whole host of acute and chronic health problems. But why? How can sticking needles in the body actually make someone feel better? Come find out the ins and outs of acupuncture, its basic theories and what happens in the body when the needles go in. Feel free to bring questions. Janine is a licensed acupuncturist and Chinese herbalist who has been working at Integrative Therapeutics in Natick since 2003.

ACCESS-MY-LIBRARY APP

Adroid and Apple device users can get free, unlimited access to some of the authoritative Gale periodical and reference resources we subscribe to by downloading the AccessMyLibrary app. It offers content from current magazines, journals, encyclopedias, how-to guides, and much more.

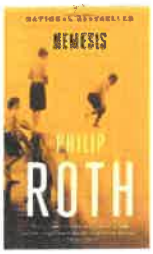
LANGUAGE LEARNING APP

And while we are on the subject of mobile apps, Apple users can take advantage of the library's Mango Languages subscription and learn languages on the go by using Mango Mobile Library Edition. The app gives access to all the Mango language courses offered through our library. It's available for free from the iTunes store.

TIMEBANK INFORMATIONAL PROGRAM

On Wednesday, January 18, at 7 p.m., come to the library as members of the TimeTradeCircle timebank will provide information about timebanking. A timebank is a way to exchange services without charging money, and it's a way to get and give help. If you spend a few hours helping someone, you earn Timebank Hours for that service. Then later you can spend those Timebank Hours to get someone else to help you. This way you can help people with whatever you're good at and you can find people to help with what you're not good at. For more information, contact Judy Bennett at 508-650-3913.

UPCOMING BOOK GROUPS



Our Evening Book Group will be discussing Nemesis by Philip Roth on Monday, January 9, at 7 p.m.

The next meeting of the Noontime Book Group is at noon on Friday, January 13, and the book to be discussed is People of the Book by Geraldine Brooks.

MADHUBANI PAINTING EXHIBIT

In January, the Raytheon Room contains an exhibit of paintings on fabric/paper by artist Sunanda Sahay based on an ancient Indian folk art tradition.

Delivery for Shut-Ins

Our staff will arrange for library materials to be delivered to the homes of citizens who are unable to get to the library due to infirmity. To request this service, please call the Circulation Department at 508-358-2311.

Poetry Workshop

The next meetings of the Wayland Poetry workshop will be on Wednesdays, January 4 and 18 at 2:00 p.m.

NEEDLEWORK/ HANDWORK GROUP

Our next monthly meeting will be on Thursday, January 12, from 10 -11:30 a.m. This is a group, facilitated by Ann Moses, that meets monthly in the library's Raytheon Room. The group is for people to work on needlework and handwork projects together.

LONG TERM CARE— WHAT'S YOUR PLAN?

On Wednesday, January 11, at 7:30 p.m., Len May will present a program at the library on long-term care. Len is a graduate of MIT's Sloan School of Management, earned the Certified in Long Term Care (CLTC) designation, and is one of thirteen people in the state of Massachusetts who is authorized to offer AARP Long Term Care insurance plans. Although he does write insurance policies, the purpose of this talk is strictly to motivate people to plan for the possible need for long term care and to review the options. Products will not be discussed. The program will address the following questions: What are the long term care risks and consequences? What could long term care cost? What are the options? Would long term care insurance be appropriate for you? What should one look for in an insurance policy and company?

FLASH DRIVES FOR SALE!

So you emailed yourself the 27,458 phone pictures you took on your wild weekend in Shrewsbury. You can't get online at home (fried modem; hoggish spouse) so you've come to the library to download them. But you—once again behind the times—only have a floppy disk! Which, as everyone else knows, can't even hold one of the snaps you got of your thumb. But not to despair—we now have 4GB flash drives for sale at the Reference Desk. You can easily save pictures, sound recordings, presentations and other bulky files. Little in size, large in capacity, and all for a mere $10. Pick one up now and save big!

BRAIN MAPPING WORKSHOP

On Tuesday evening, January 17 at 7:00 p.m., the Foundation for Wellness Professionals and Dr. Jolene Ross will offer a free workshop in the library's Raytheon Room for parents and teachers of children with special needs on brain mapping and drug -free approaches for the treatment of ADD, autism, and other special needs.

Great Decisions Program

Are you interested in world politics? Do you enjoy discussing current events with a group of people? Participate in the 2012 Great Decisions Program, which will include eight sessions beginning in February. Great Decisions, the centerpiece of the longest-running civic education progr a.m. in the United States devoted to foreign affairs, empowers readers to discuss global issues shaping U.S. foreign policy and the world. Topics will include Middle East Realignment, Promoting Democracy, Mexico, Cybersecurity, Exit from Afghanistan and Iraq, State of the Oceans, Indonesia, and Energy Geopolitics. The first session of Great Decisions will meet on Friday, February 17 from 9:15 to 11:30 a.m. in the Raytheon Room. The topic will be Middle East Realignment.

Wayland Public Library Youth Services News

Fond Farewell!
I have accepted a job working at the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners. This is a very exciting position that supports libraries all over the state. There are many things I will miss about working at the Wayland Public Library, especially the families and community members I have gotten to know over the years. Please do stop by before my last day, Friday January 13, to say goodbye!

Acupuncture 101 — the What, Why, and How
Tuesday, February 7 at 7:30 p.m.

At our next Great Presenters program on Tuesday, February 7, at 7:30 p.m., Janine Agoglia will talk about the what, the why, and the how of acupuncture. Find out why people are turning to acupuncture more frequently to battle a whole host of acute and chronic health problems. How can sticking needles in the body actually make someone feel better? Look for similar trainings the last Wednesday of each month!

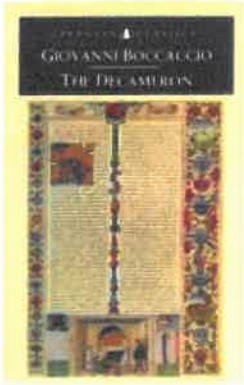
Frank Smith: Boccaccio and His Age

Thursday, March 1, at 1 p.m. will mark the start of a six-week course with WHS teacher emeritus, Frank Smith. He will take us to Italy in the 1300's, the century of transition from the medieval era to the dawn of the Renaissance. Attendees are asked to acquire and read The Decameron by Boccaccio (Penguin Classics, 2nd edition, translated by G.H. McWilliams) before the start of the course. There will be two copies at the library and several more available through the Minuteman Library Network. Sign-up for the course is at the Circulation Desk.



Business & Finance Information Survey

Attention, Wayland Library business collection users. We're trying to make the business and finance collection work better for you. We're interested in what sources you use in print and electronically, and what sources and/or subjects you'd like us to develop. It would really help us out if you would fill out our survey about this on Facebook. And while you're there, please like our Facebook page. We use the page to post items of interest and we wouldn't want you to miss out on programming, reader's advisory, or any odds and ends. To complete the survey, go to our Facebook page or follow the links on our website, www.waylandlibrary.org.

Great Decisions Series
Middle East Realignment
February 17 at 9:15 a.m.

The popular revolts and upheaval of the Arab Spring have radically changed the face of the Middle East. What lies ahead for the Middle East's transition to democracy? What are the prospects for the governments that have held out in this new order? With many longtime U.S. allies ousted, how will the U.S. recalibrate its relations with the new regimes?

Upcoming Book Groups

Our Evening Book Group will be discussing Chicago by Alaa Al Aswany on Monday, February 6 at 7 p.m.

The next meeting of the Noontime Book Group is at noon on Friday, February 10, and the book to be discussed is A Thousand Acres by Jane Smiley.

DVDs Journey North to a New Home

Venturing boldly forth from the Round Room to the North Wing, the DVDs are taking over the first set of shelves on the right (originally home to the reference collection and then to the travel books). Feature films come first, followed by TV series, then foreign language, then non-fiction. Chinese DVDs are (for the time being) in a separate rack directly across from the feature films and behind the newspapers. New and Express DVDs will be displayed on wooden ends of the shelves and on top of the newspapers, in much nicer racks than they're in at the moment. The result? Easier browsing of the DVDs, and a clean, uncluttered Round Room on its way to being the new adult reading room. Watch this space for further developments.

ESL Online from Mango Languages

If you or someone you know is learning to speak English, be sure to take a look at our Mango language resource. (You'll find it under "Research Databases" on our home page.) Mango has programs for native speakers of more than a dozen languages, including Portuguese, Mandarin, Korean, Turkish, Polish, and Greek. By listening to and repeating parts of ordinary conversations, the student not only learns the individual words and phrases, but how they're used in everyday life. It's a tremendously useful tool for getting started in that complicated language, English.

Poetry Workshop

The next meetings of the Wayland Poetry workshop will be on Wednesdays, February 1 and 15 at 2:00 p.m.

Foyer Exhibit
Mindful Seeing: Capturing a Moment in Time

In February, the library foyer features the photographs of Ronna Horwitz Kazarian. Kazarian is a resident of Wayland whose interest in photography dates back to her college days. She has developed her photographic vision by combining photography with her yoga and meditation practice. She says that her focus is capturing that special moment, truly seeing, and being in the present.

Arts/Wayland Photographers

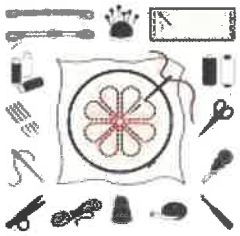
In February the Raytheon Room will contain the work of photographers who are members of Arts/Wayland.

Becoming a Volunteer Tutor of English

Have you ever thought about tutoring someone in English? We always have a waiting list of learners who need help. Program director Ginny Steel is currently enrolling prospective tutors for the five-session course that starts on February 29. The class will meet at the Wayland Library on five consecutive Wednesday mornings, 9:00-12:00. No prior knowledge of a foreign language is needed, just an openness to other cultures and the desire to share your knowledge of English. The training is free, although it is necessary to purchase a textbook for about $20. Volunteers will work one-on-one with adults who want to improve their abilities to speak and write English. For more information or to enroll in the tutor-training course, you can phone Ginny Steel at 508-358-7517 or email her at virginia@thesteels.com.

Needlework/Handwork Group

Our next monthly meeting will be on Thursday, February 9, from 10-11:30 a.m. This is a group, facilitated by Ann Moses, that meets monthly in the library's Raytheon Room. The group is for people to work on needlework and handwork projects together.



Selling Your Home in Perilous Times

On Wednesday, March 7 from 7-8:30 p.m., realtor Brian Cichella will discuss the following:

Understanding the relationship between the assessed value of your home vs. its current fair market value

Pricing your home with full knowledge of the current Wayland housing market to realize the greatest return

Things both large and small that you can do to prepare your home for sale at the highest amount possible

Appreciating how your home is marketed for sale today by the large real estate brokerage firms in the internet age

Having a satisfactory outcome to your home selling experience

Great Presenters Series
Write to Remember with Misha Chowdhury

Tuesday, March 6
7:30 - 9:00 p.m.

In a world in which we have forgotten how to read the roadmaps held in our bodies and our histories, how can we begin to put ourselves and our communities back together? Through readings of his own poetry and guided writing exercises, Misha, a local artist and teacher, will lead us in an exploration of how we might re-member through the act of writing.

Misha is a queer Bengali poet, singer and performer. He recently returned from a Fulbright Creative Writing Fellowship in Calcutta, his city of origin, resulting in a collection of new poems. Currently, he teaches humanities, music and theater at Meridian Academy in Brookline.

SPOTLIGHT ON : Wayland Police Department

On Sunday, February 19, at 2 p.m. in the library's Raytheon Room, Wayland Police Chief Bob Irving will give a presentation on the history of the Wayland Police Department. Sponsored by the Wayland Historical Society.

NEW CHILDREN'S LIBRARIAN

There is a new face in our Children's Room! Pam McCuen has been hired as the new head of our Youth Services Department. Ms. McCuen comes to us after many years working in both the Newton and Cambridge Public Libraries. She has an undergraduate degree from Harvard College, a graduate degree in English from Boston College, and a Masters degree in library science from the University of Illinois. Drop by the Children's Room, introduce yourself to Pam, and let her know what you and your kids would like to see happening at the library.

WRITE TO RE-MEMBER

At our next Great Presenters program on Tuesday, March 6 at 7:30 p.m., Misha Chowdhury, a local artist and teacher, will lead us in an exploration about how we can begin to put ourselves and our communities back together through the act of writing. Misha describes himself as a queer Bengali poet, singer, and performer. He says that he received his mantra, "Story Comes First," in a Wayland High School theater rehearsal and has been living his responsibility to story ever since. Misha is a Kundiman Fellow, and he recently returned from a Fulbright Creative Writing Fellowship in Calcutta, his city of origin, resulting in a collection of new poems. He currently teaches humanities, music, and theater at Meridian Academy in Brookline.

Navigating the Path to Independence

HOUSING AND RESIDENTIAL SERVICES: WHAT WAS, WHAT IS, WHAT WILL BE

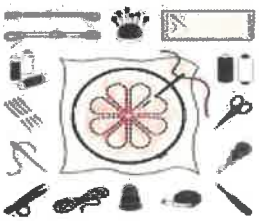
Monday, March 26 at 7:00 p.m.

with Sandy Slavet, M.Ed. and Katherine Provost, M.B.A.

Sandy will provide an overview of what parents can expect regarding housing opportunities for adult children with disabilities. She is the director of the Disabilities Resource Network of Jewish Family & Children's Service where she provides information and referral services for individuals, family members and providers of services for people with disabilities.

Katherine, the Family Self Sufficiency Program Coordinator at the Wayland Housing Authority, will discuss affordable housing options for adults with disabilities living in Wayland and surrounding towns. She will outline the process, timeline and housing options available. Katherine works with individuals and families to achieve economic self-sufficiency through employment and financial literacy.

NEEDLE-WORK GROUP

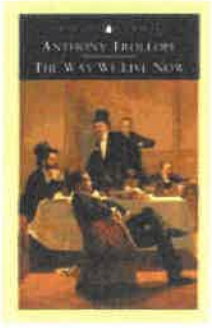


Our next needlework group will meet at the library on Thursday, March 8, at 10 a.m. It will be a time to socialize, work on hand projects (no machines), share ideas, and explore resources. See you there with your needlework project!

LIBRARY BOOK GROUPS

Our evening book group will be meeting at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, March 5, to discuss What Was Lost by Catherine O'Flynn. Long-listed for the Booker Prize, the Orange Prize, and "The Guardian" First Book Award, What Was Lost is a tender and sharply observant debut novel about a missing young girl.

Our noontime book group will meet on Friday, March 9 at noon and will be discussing The Way We Live Now, by Anthony Trollope. For more information about the daytime book group, contact Sandy Raymond, also at 508-358-2311.



FRANK SMITH: BOCACCIO AND HIS AGE
March 1 - April 5

This is a six-week course which takes us to Italy in the 1300s, the century of transition from the medieval era to the dawn of the Renaissance. We will focus on Boccaccio, with The Decameron as our principal reading, along with references to his two great contemporaries, Petrarch and Dante. The cultural and societal history of the age will not be neglected, as the art and architecture which characterize this century will be an intrinsic part of the course. We will meet Arnolfo di Cambio, Cimabue, Giotto, Simone Martini, and other great artists of the period.

Thursdays,
1:00 - 3:00p.m.

E-READER E-VENING

Matt Amory, computer specialist and reference librarian, will demonstrate locating, downloading, reading, listening to, and returning e-content on a variety of devices, including Kindle and Nook. GREAT DECISIONS 2012
March 16
9:15 - 11:30 a.m.
Topic:
Promoting Democracy

The U.S. has had a history of advancing and supporting democracy around the world. What place does democracy promotion have in U.S. foreign policy today? With a choice of tools ranging from economic aid to military force, what are the appropriate yet effective methods that the U.S. should use to promote democracy?

RAYTHEON ROOM:
Photography by Alice A. Shafer

Alice's photography focuses on people, especially children, often strangers and always is candid. As a street photographer she looks for moments that reflect our universal human experience and for responses to what life brings our way. Her series of photographs evolved from her many walkabouts in New York and Boston, Truro and Provincetown. The images are moments in everyday life.

20th Century Masters - Picasso, Matisse, Chagall with Judy Schurgin

This art series features three of the most innovative artists of the twentieth century--Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse and Marc Chagall. Regarded by many as the most significant artist of the twentieth century, Pablo Picasso (1881-1973) created inventive and experimental works which included painting, sculpture, ceramics, etchings, lithographs and stage design. The French artist, Henri Matisse (1869-1954) was an extremely versatile artist. His inventive works include oil paintings, sculpture, prints and collage or "cut-outs." Marc Chagall (1887-1985) constantly sought new forms of expression. His unique and individualistic style reveals a wide range of influences, such as Cubism, Fauvism, Surrealism and Expressionism.

WILDERNESS LANDSCAPES

Exhibit by Jeremy Harrison

Jeremy Harrison is an art teacher at The Rivers School in Weston. He earned an MFA in printmaking at the University of Iowa in 1985. Now working in watercolor, Harrison's show features wilderness landscapes from the north woods and Canadian tundra. He will also be giving a talk on April 3rd for the Wayland Great Presenters Series on his 800-mile canoe journey through the Canadian Arctic.

TRANS-ARCTIC CANOE EXPEDITION — PIKE'S PORTAGE TO THE ARCTIC OCEAN

Jeremy Harrison

An account in words and photographs of a 50-day/800 mile journey through the untarnished wilderness of northeastern Canada's barren lands in support of WWF-Canada. The six-man team found both tranquility and adversity in a landscape characterized by sharp contrasts between tranquil beauty and unforgiving conditions. Jeremy is an art teacher, painter and photographer living in Massachusetts.

Tuesday, April 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the Raytheon Room.

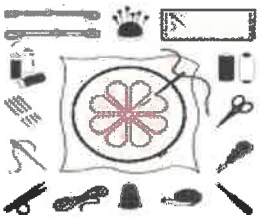
FOYER EXHIBIT

Murray and Trudy Drobnis have been exhibiting their photographs at the library for many years and will be back during the month of April in the foyer.

EMPLOYMENT WORKSHOPS

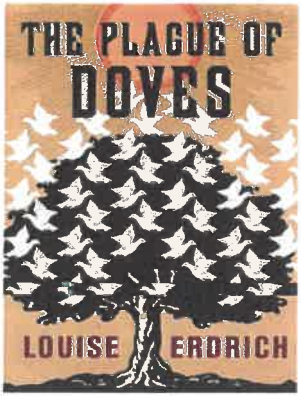
On four Saturday mornings this spring the library is sponsoring employment workshops with Senior Employment Specialist Gary Gekow to help people kick-start their job searches. The first workshop will be from 10:30-12:30 on Saturday, April 28, and will be a "Resume Writing Review." On that date Gary will discuss resume writing in general, via a roundtable group format. Participants are encouraged to bring their existing resume for confidential one-on-one analysis as time permits. Subsequent workshops held on May 5, 12, and 26 will address cover and thank-you letters, interviewing, and salary and benefits negotiation.

NEEDLE-WORK GROUP



Our next needlework group will meet at the library on Thursday, April 12, at 10 a.m. It will be a time to socialize, work on hand projects (no machines), share ideas, and explore resources. See you there with your needlework project!

NOONTIME BOOK GROUP



The next meeting of the Noontime Book Group is Friday, April 13. The title to be discussed is The Plague of Doves by Louise Erdrich, which Publisher's Weekly called "a multigenerational tour de force of sin, redemption, murder and vengeance." All are welcome to join the conversation.

GREAT DECISIONS 2012
April 20
9:15 - 11:30 a.m
Topic: Mexico

Mexico's border with Central America, as well as the border it shares with the U.S., has been a pathway for people, goods, crime and contraband in both directions. How can Mexico address these transborder challenges? What is the future of Mexico's relations with its northern and southern neighbors? How will Mexico's foreign relations affect its domestic politics?

EVENING BOOK GROUP

Richard Flanagan's novel, Gould's Book of Fish ("a rich tragicomic saga of art, fish and the founding of new worlds") is the subject of the next meeting of the Evening Book Group on Monday, April 2, 7-8:30 p.m.

HELPING TO HEAL: COMBATING HIV/AIDS THROUGH THE VISUAL ARTS IN SOUTH AFRICA

with Pamela Allara

Tuesday, May 15 at 7:00 p.m.

The AIDS pandemic has had a devastating effect on a generation of families throughout South Africa. Many local arts organizations have responded by using the visual arts to spread knowledge and to give voice to both fears and hope. One such initiative is the Paper Prayers program, which is administered by the community-based Artist Proof Studio in Johannesburg. This talk will look at this program's various efforts since 1997, and the moving prints, murals and embroideries that have resulted.

Pamela is Associate Professor emerita, contemporary art and visual culture, Brandeis University.

Time Management, Organization and Communication Skills Training for Adults with Disabilities

Deborah Harrison, M.A., CCC/SLP, will take a look at the effectiveness of life skills coaching for adults with disabilities. As a life and career coach and case manager for adults with disabilities, she works with clients to explore options for feeling more effective in their personal and work lives. Important keys to successful independent living involve a certain level of self-awareness, self-motivation, and self-monitoring abilities for managing time, organizing one's life and using effective communication skills. Deb is a licensed and certified speech-language pathologist, with over 25 years of experience treating speech, language and communication disorders in a variety of clinical settings.

Cybersecurity

The securitization of cyberspace has caused a sea change for both governments and the private sector, faced with new threats, new battlegrounds and new opportunities. Faced with challenges such as international cybercrime and authoritarian control of networks, how will the U.S. and its democratic allies approach the cyber frontier? How does this new domain figure in U.S. strategic interests?

The Merry Wives of Windsor

Professor Helen Whall will continue our annual Shakespeare Festival in May on the theme of "Following Falstaff." Though Falstaff is always a rascal and sometimes a rogue in Shakespeare's plays, he has long won the hearts of audiences. This series traces his fate through two histories and a comedy that may not show the big man in love but does show him chasing the ladies of Windsor.

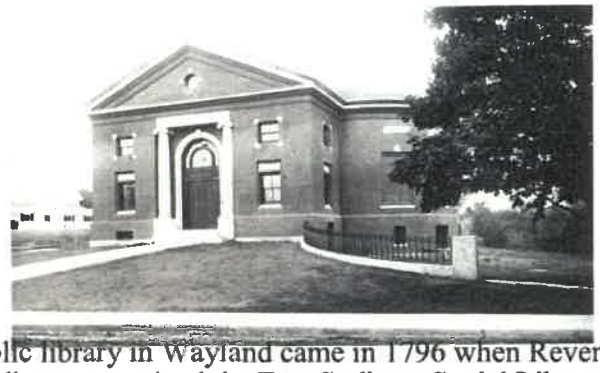
A Brief History of the Wayland Free Public Library



The very first attempt at a public library in Wayland came in 1796 when Reverend Josiah Bridge, pastor of the First Church of East Sudbury, organized the East Sudbury Social Library. Thirty-two members paid a subscription fee of $4.00, and a yearly fee of 25 cents, that enabled them to borrow any of the library's 36 volumes. ($4.00 would be equivalent to $68 today.) The books were stored in the private homes of the librarians. By 1832, the East Sudbury Social Library had 227 volumes. These books were later transferred to the public library when it was founded.

Other precursors of the Wayland Library were the East Sudbury Charitable Library, founded in 1815 by Reverend John Burt Wight, pastor of the First Parish Church and six Common School Libraries established by the town in 1845 to furnish each of the district schools with a collection of 60 volumes.

The WPL proper had its start in 1847 when Francis Wayland, president of Brown University, told his good friend, Wayland resident and Brown trustee Judge Edward Mellen, that he would give the town $500 for the purpose of starting a public library if the town would raise the matching funds. The proposal was put forward at the January Town Meeting in 1848. James Sumner Draper collected $553.90 from 208 people in time for the March Town Meeting, where the town voted to accept the funds for a "Free Public Library." But there was some question as to whether it could legally do so.

Rev. Wight, now the town's state representative, filed and successfully shepherded through the legislature a bill that would permit towns to use tax monies to "establish and maintain libraries for the use of the inhabitants thereof." This is the basis for the Wayland Library's claim to be the first free public library in Massachusetts—and the second in the country.

In June of 1850 a room was renovated in the old Collins Market building and books started circulating on August 7. The library was open only on Saturday afternoons and evenings. Any resident of the town over the age of fourteen could take out one book at a time, but no family was allowed to have more than three at a time. The librarian's salary was $100 a year.

After a succession of homes, the Library moved into its current residence in 1900, thanks to the generosity of Wayland resident Willard Gould Roby, who in 1896 gave the town $10,000 for a new building and the land on which to build. The architect was Samuel Mead of Cabot, Everett & Mead in Weston. The Boston Globe opined that the interior of the new library "impresses one with the perfect harmony of character and design." The building was extensively renovated and a new wing was added in 1988. Since then, the Library has continued to grow in scope, if not space, as it keeps abreast of the constant changes in the world of information and reading.

Exit from Afghanistan & Iraq

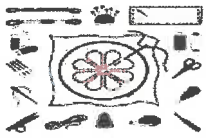
Ten years after September 11, 2001, the U.S. is winding down its military commitment in Iraq and slowly pulling out of Afghanistan. What exit strategy will help Afghanistan and Iraq build stable democratic nations? How can the U.S. continue to achieve its counterterrorism goals? What is the role of the U.S. in the future of the Middle East?

Watercolors in the Raytheon Room

Yvonne Posa will be exhibiting new watercolor paintings during the month of June. She paints in watercolors because she finds the medium to be especially challenging in terms of keeping her paintings "fresh" and free from being overworked. Her work is based in realism, but she believes in the premise that less is more and enjoys letting colors flow into each other.

The artist's reception will be Sunday, June 3 2:30-4:00 pm. All are welcome.

NEEDLEWORK GROUP



Our next needlework group will meet at the library on Thursday, June 14, at 10 a.m. It will be a time to socialize, work on hand projects (no machines), share ideas, and explore resources. See you there with your needlework project!

...with Janet Armentano

Teens Only Wednesday, July 11 9:30-11:30 a.m.

Adults and Serious Teen Artists
Friday, July 13 9:30-11-30 a.m.

In this two-hour workshop, we will begin by designing strong compositions in order to develop successful artwork. A variety of media, such as pencil, charcoal and conte crayon, will be used to develop thumbnail sketches with the goal of creating asymmetrical balance in our work. Analyzing negative space and using techniques such as sighting will aid in accurately representing the subject. Registration is required and each workshop is limited to 10 participants. Register through our online event calendar at waylandlibrary.org or by calling 508-358-2311 and please register for only one workshop.

... with Cecilia Sharma
Experiments In Watercolor

Mondays, July 23 and July 30; 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Come and enjoy FREE individual hands-on instruction and explore a variety of techniques that are fun and exciting! Through a series of painting exercises, you will learn layering of paint, developing textures and shapes, and creating the illusion of light. The workshop will include painting demonstrations that will teach you to explore your own unique style of painting.

Cecilia Sharma is an award-winning designer and artist who often conducts workshops on Landscape, Floral, and Still-life. She currently teaches at the Wayland Art Center in Wayland, The Sudbury Valley Trustees in Sudbury and at the Wellesley Recreation Department in Wellesley. These programs are geared for adults or older teens who are serious about art.

To keep the expense of this workshop reasonable for the library, students are asked to bring their own materials. Please go to the events page at www.waylandlibrary.org for more information or to sign up for this program.

Foyer Exhibit Welcome to Ivy's World

"Ivy's World" was the subject I chose for a class on documentary photography I took this past semester at Mass College of Art.

My granddaughter, Ivy, turned four in May. She lives with her mom, dad and two-year old brother in Brighton and often visits us in Wayland.

Ivy proved to be a great subject for my project because she is mostly unselfconscious about being photographed and becomes totally engrossed in her various activities. Many of the Ivy images seem to capture the essence of being a child.

Friends' Award Goes to Cari Goldfine

Congratulations to Cari Goldfine, this year's winner of the Friends of the Wayland Public Library Award. The Friends present this award annually to a graduating Wayland High School senior who has demonstrated intellectual curiosity and a love of literature and reading throughout his or her high school career. The recipient was chosen by the High School English Department and the award was presented during the Senior Awards Ceremony in June. The Friends wish Cari much success at Vassar College this coming year.

NEW MUSEUM PASSES

We have a couple of new museum passes that might be of special interest to families. Boston By Foot runs fascinating walking tours in Boston, including Boston By Little Feet tours, especially designed for young walkers 6-12. Each pass provides member privileges for up to four persons on all regularly scheduled tours. The pass does not cover admission on the architectural boat tour. The Harvard Museum of Natural History is full of wonderful treasures, including the historic Great Mammal Hall, the Africa gallery, and the Glass Flowers. If you haven't gone there, you should consider checking it out. The library also has passes to the Harvard Art Museums (the Fogg, the Sackler, and the Busch-Reisinger Museums). And don't forget our Massachusetts State Parks pass, which allows free daytime parking for one carload of visitors to most Massachusetts State Parks that charge a parking fee.

NEW LIBRARY LAPTOPS

Want to do some work on the computer but don't want to be tethered to a table? Starting in the fall, the WPL is going to have ten shiny new Chromebook notebooks for use here in the library. Just check one out, find a comfortable spot, and check your email, do some word processing or spreadsheets courtesy of Google Docs, or print what you need on our new wireless color printer. The notebooks are small and light enough for any size lap, and they're compatible with your flash drive (in case you want to save something). What's more, they'll work anywhere in the building. Enjoy the freedom!

Raytheon Room Exhibit
Lost in the Woods
Prints by Stephanie Coy

"As an artist, my subject matter has always been tied to my hometown, Wayland, Massachusetts. Much of Wayland is made up of conservation land and wildlife refuges. Growing up in the midst of these relatively wild places, I was encouraged to spend time out of doors and to explore the untouched land around me….I have come to believe that this kind of untouched land is one of the most beautiful types of landscape. I strive to emulate the experience of walking though the woods or along the bank of a river while meditating self-reflectively."

Stephanie is a recent graduate of the University of Massachusetts Amherst with a degree in Printmaking and a minor in Art History. She works at the University Museum of Contemporary Art as the Collections Coordinator and is getting ready to pursue a career in Art Conservation.

All are welcome to a reception on August 11 from 10:30 to 1:00.

New Technologies: Pay Fines at Self-Checkout; Digital Signs

Library patrons have been able to pay for lost items and library fines online for a number of years now. We have now installed some new hardware that allows users the convenience of swiping their credit cards right at the self-checkout stations in the library. Of course, circulation staffers are always available to help anyone who prefers to come to the desk and pay by cash or check.
In addition, this fall we will be installing some digital signage to help promote library collections, programs, and services more attractively.

POETRY WORKSHOP

The next meetings of the library's Poetry Workshops will be on Wednesdays, September 5 and 19 at 2 p.m.

NEEDLEWORK GROUP

Our needlework group will resume meeting at the library on Thursday, September 5, at 10 a.m. It will be a time to socialize, work on hand projects (no machines), share ideas, and explore resources. See you there with your favorite needlework project!

August Foyer Exhibit: Bob Olshansky Explores Ivy's World

According to Mr. Olshansky, "'Ivy's World' was the subject I chose for a class on documentary photography I took this past semester at Mass College of Art.

"My granddaughter, Ivy, turned four in May. She lives with her mom, dad, and two-year-old brother in Brighton and often visits us in Wayland.

"Ivy proved to be a great subject for my project because she is mostly unselfconscious about being photographed and becomes totally engrossed in her various activities."

Great Presenters Series
RIKLEEN TO TALK ON "MILLENNIALS"
October 2 at 7:30 p.m.

Our first speaker in this year's Great Presenters Series will be Lauren Stiller Rikleen who will talk on "Strengthening Intergenerational Relationships." As adolescents and young adults, Millennials have significantly different work and communication styles from Baby Boomers and Gen Xers, with profound implications for the workplace and for their own future children. This interactive program will describe how the Millennials will likely change the way we work and play. Rikleen is president of the Rikleen Institute for Strategic Leadership and Executive-in-Residence at the Boston College Center for Work & Family in the Carroll School of Management.

FALL AUTHOR VISITS

Keep your eyes peeled for more information on upcoming author visits at the library this fall. Historical suspense writer William Martin (author of Back Bay and many others) will be here on Tuesday, October 23, at 7 p.m. to talk about his latest book, The Lincoln Letter.
Investigative reporter for 7News in Boston and award-winning mystery author Hank Phillippi Ryan will be here on the evening of Tuesday, November 27, to talk about her new book, The Other Woman.
Wayland's own Juliette Fay will be at the library to talk about her latest book, The Shortest Way Home, on Sunday afternoon, December 2. And children's author and Wayland resident Nancy Poydar will be here on October 2 and 3 to talk to both preschoolers and children in the early elementary grades about her new book, Bus Driver.

OPEN RESERVES

In case you haven't noticed, your holds are no longer being kept behind the Circulation Desk. Now they're on the metal shelve directly across from it, shelved by your last name. The bigger space means we can hold them longer, for a whole week.

NEEDLEWORK/ HANDWORK GROUP

This fall our Needlework/ Handwork group, facilitated by Ann Moses, will meet on the first Wednesday of each month from 10–11:30 a.m. in the Raytheon Room. Any adult who quilts, embroiders, knits, or does any type of handwork is welcome. The point of the group is to share ideas and resources, as well as chat and socialize. If anyone has questions concerning a type of needlework, we can usually head them in the right direction. For more information, contact Ann Moses: annmoses@verizon.net or 508-358-7113.

Raytheon Room Exhibit
Connecting with Nature

The September Raytheon Room Exhibit will feature Melissa Fischer's watercolors. Her works include landscapes from New England and elsewhere, as well as birds, wildlife, and dog portraits.

GREAT DECISIONS 2012
September 21
9:15 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.
State of the Oceans

The world's oceans are essential to life on earth, and are tremendously sensitive to global climate change. What are the consequences of climate change on oceanic factors like biodiversity, sea levels and extreme weather systems? How can the U.S. and its international partners address the emerging challenges to this shared resource?

BOOK DONATIONS

If you have books that you are willing to donate, please drop them off in the lower level of the library any time the library is open. Thank you!

Personal Cloud Computing E-vening

Changing & Challenging Landscape of College Admissions

Over the past ten years, applying to college has become more competitive and more complicated. Yet new opportunities exist at colleges for many types of students. Families need to be aware of the new rules for college admission—and how to evaluate both the current admissions process and the colleges best suited for your student. This talk will cover important aspects of the college planning process.

BECOME AN ESOL TUTOR

Have you ever thought about tutoring someone in English? ESOL program director Ginny Steel is currently enrolling prospective tutors for the five-session course that starts on October 10. The class will meet at the Wayland Library on five consecutive Wednesday evenings, from 6-9 p.m. Most people who decide to become tutors are thinking of the good it can do, helping others become more proficient in English. But then they discover the satisfaction that comes as progress is made and a relationship develops that enriches both learner and tutor. No prior knowledge of a foreign language is needed, just an openness to other cultures and the desire to share your knowledge of English. The training is free, although it is necessary to purchase a textbook for about $20. For more information or to enroll in the tutor-training course, you can phone Ginny Steel at 508-358-7517 or email her at virginia@thesteels.com.

BOOK GROUPS ARE BACK IN OCTOBER

If you have a taste for good fiction (and who doesn't), we have two lively groups for you to join. The daytime group—led by Assistant Director Sandy Raymond—meets at noon on the second Friday each month. Reference Librarian Andy Moore leads evening discussions at 7 p.m. on the first Monday. Each group has its own selections, all of which are available through the Minuteman Library Network. No sign-up, no commitment—drop in whenever you feel like it.

AUTHOR WILLIAM MARTIN TO TALK

What if Lincoln kept a diary in the bloody spring of 1862, setting down his thoughts on emancipaton, race, and the meaning of the war? What if he lost it? Who found it then? Who has it now? Peter Fallon and Evangeline Carrington return for their fifth adventure. This time, they head for Civil War Washington to find that diary. Martin comes to the Wayland Library to answer all these questions and more as he tells us about his newest book, The Lincoln Letter.

WATCH THIS SPACE FOR NEW SHINY THINGS

Keep abreast of Library doings just by turning your gaze upward on your next visit. There, on the catwalk spanning the Adult section, you'll see two big, bright, new monitors displaying upcoming events at the WPL. Author appearances, lectures, kids' activities, workshops, meetings, and library resources—you can't miss them now because they're in living color, visible as soon as you walk in the door. It's just another way for us to say, "Look at all we've got!"

Bakers Needed!

The Friends of the Wayland Library are looking for a few (okay, more than a few) good bakers to contribute confections to the fall and spring book sales. Baked goods attract sweet lovers of all ages to the sale and add substantially to the bottom line. Bakers will receive a reminder call the week before the sale. This year's sale will be held on October 26-28. If you're interested in being added to our call list, please contact Anne Heller at (508) 358-4515.

"PRESERVING PRICELESS MEMORIES – HOW TO CREATE A LASTING LEGACY FOR YOUR FAMILY"
Tuesday, November 6
7:00 p.m.

How did your grandparents meet? What are your family's food traditions and where did those recipes come from? What was your father's first job? By recording an oral history of family members, you'll be able to capture and preserve answers to these questions before they are gone forever. Learn how to create an oral history for your family.

David is a personal historian and founder of Story Trust, a Newton-based publisher of memoirs and personal histories for families, family-owned businesses, and organizations.

NEEDLEWORK/ HANDWORK GROUP

Our monthly Needlework/ Handwork group will meet on Wednesday, October 3 from 10–11:30 a.m. in the Raytheon Room. Any adult who quilts, embroiders, knits, or does any type of handwork is welcome. The point of the group is to share ideas and resources, as well as chat and socialize. For more information, contact Ann Moses: annmoses@verizon.net or 508-358-7113.

DRIVING FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES

Monday, November 26 7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Donna VanHelene, MS/OTR/L, Occupational Therapist at Spaulding Rehabilitation Hospital, Braintree will help answer the questions "Is my teen or adult child with a disability safe to drive?" and "What can be done to help a person with a disability be a safer driver?" She will help navigate the legal issues regarding driving, explaining individual vs. physician responsibilities in determining conditions that may impair driving.

Author Hank Phillippi Ryan
Tuesday, November 27, at 7:00 p.m.

Investigative reporter for 7News in Boston and award-winning mystery author Hank Phillippi Ryan will be here on the evening of Tuesday, November 27, to talk about her new book, The Other Woman. Hank is the investigative reporter for Boston's NBC affiliate (Channel 7). A television journalist since 1975, she has won 27 Emmys and ten Edward R. Murrow awards. Her work has resulted in new laws, people sent to prison, homes removed from foreclosure, and millions of dollars in restitution.

Author Juliette Fay
Sunday, December 2, at 3:00 p.m.

Wayland author Juliette Fay will be at the library to talk about her most recent novel, The Shortest Way Home. In this new novel, Juliette explores the character of Sean Doran, who has spent twenty years as a nurse in Third World war zones and natural disaster areas, fully embracing what he'd always felt was his life's mission. But when burnout sets in, Sean is reluctantly drawn home and is drawn into his own family's troubles. Library Journal says, "Fay is one of the best authors of women's fiction, and her novels are not to be missed. A moving, introspective look at what it means to be family, and to be truly home."

NOONTIME BOOK GROUP

Our Noontime Book Group will meet on Friday, November 9, at noon and will be discussing Old Filth by Jane Gardam. The noontime group is facilitated by Sandy Raymond. New members are welcome at these groups, and the book lists can be found in the Readers's Corner section of our website. For more information, call the library at 508-358-2311.

Thank you to all those who continue to support the Wayland Public Library Endowment Fund. If you are planning any end-of-year giving, please think about contributing to the Endowment Fund!

SVNP ANNUAL PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBIT

The Sudbury Valley Nature Photographers will have their annual fall exhibit during November in the library's Raytheon Room. It features recent work by 17 local photographers, encompassing a wide range of nature subjects. There will be a Meet the Artists reception for the public on Saturday, November 10 from 2 to 5 p.m., which will include several brief "gallery talks" by some of the exhibiting photographers, beginning at 3:15 p.m.

GREAT PRESENTERS

Susie Klein: "Boston To Barcelona: A Family At Sea"
Tuesday, December 4 at 7:30p.m.

In 2005 Wayland resident Susie Klein, her husband and their two sons, then aged 14 and 16, sailed their 41-foot sailboat across the Atlantic, stopping in the Azores, Gibraltar, Morocco, Spain and the Balearic Islands. With seven years' hindsight Suzie will recount the adventure and its impact on her family.

Susie has had a 25-year career in journalism and investor relations. Her articles have been published in The New Yorker, Los Angeles Times, Boston Globe, SAIL, Cruising World and the Wayland Town Crier. She recently returned to Wayland after two years of teaching English at universities in France and now teaches ESOL at Framingham State.

GREAT DECISIONS 2012

The next meeting will be on Friday, November 16, from 9:15-11:30 a.m. and the topic will be Energy Geopolitics. The energy markets have been shaken by the instability of Middle East oil and the vulnerability of nuclear power. Moreover, developing countries like China are becoming bigger energy consumers, while energy producers like Russia see the opportunity to widen their influence. In this changed landscape, how will the U.S.'s energy needs affect its relations with other nations?

EMPLOYMENT WORKSHOPS WITH GARY GEKOW

Programs are from 7:00 p.m.- 9:00 p.m. in the Raytheon Room

The Employment Workshop with Gary Gekow, which was originally scheduled for October 30, had to be canceled due to a power outage at the library after the storm. Because of some conflict in Mr. Gekow's schedule, we are working with him to schedule the rest of the workshops. The second workshop will be on Tuesday, November 20. At that workshop Gekow will lead a session on Cover & Thank You Letters. We will soon announce dates for the last workshop on Interviewing and Salary and Benefits Negotiation.

END-OF-YEAR GIVING

Thank you to all those who continue to support the Wayland Public Library Endowment Fund. If you are planning any end-of-year giving, please think about contributing to the Endowment Fund!

Library Mugs and Book Bags

The Friends of the Library are offering very handsome "Wayland Library Mugs" for sale as a fundraiser. Each mug is hand thrown and features a wonderful cast image of our historic library building. They are available at the circulation desk for $15. Beautiful canvas book bags are also available for $15.

Employment Workshops with Gary Gekow

INTERVIEW WORKSHOP
Tues., December 11 at 7:00 p.m.

This is an interactive and informal question and answer session where we role play typical interview questions and how best to answer them. The seminar also includes ways to avoid job candidates' most common interview mistakes.

SALARY AND BENEFITS NEGOTIATION
Tues., December 18 at 7:00 p.m.

For many individuals, discussing compensation with employers is a risky and uncomfortable endeavor, yet it is imperative that people have the necessary tools to advocate for themselves. Is the salary commensurate with your market value? Can allowances be made with respect to additional vacation time and increased stock options? We will discuss strategies to help bolster confidence and gain knowledge as it relates to business negotiations.

NEEDLEWORK/ HANDWORK GROUP

Our Needlework/Handwork group meets on the first Wednesday of each month from 10-11:30 a.m. in the Raytheon Room where people work on needlework and handwork projects together. For more information, contact Ann Moses at annmoses@verizon.net or 508-358-7113. Dates for the rest of this year are: Dec. 5, Jan. 2, Feb. 6, Mar. 6, Apr. 3, May 1, and June 5.

KILL-A-WATT METER LOAN

NSTAR has donated some Kill-A-Watt Meters to the library to circulate to our patrons. The device simultaneously plugs into an electrical outlet and an appliance to measure how much power the appliance uses. You can find the meter on the consumer shelf in the library and check it out just like a book.

MAKE IT EASY ON YOUR BOOK GROUP

Hot tip: don't pick the latest bestseller. Sure, you want to be au courant, in on the hot topics, part of the national conversation, but come on—what about separating from the pack? Maybe steering the conversation? Surprisingly, there are a lot of really good, discussion-provoking books that don't stay for weeks on the Times list—if they get there at all. Here are just a few from within the last few years, all readily available at the Library.

City of Thieves by David Benioff
Await Your Reply by Dan Chaon
The Sisters Brothers by Patrick DeWitt
Then We Came to the End by Joshua Ferris
Blame by Michelle Huneven
Woodsburner by John Pipkin
Model Home by Eric Puchner
The Imperfectionist by Tom Rachman
Three Girls and Their Brother by Theresa Rebeck

UPCOMING BOOK GROUPS

Our Evening Book Group will be discussing The Ask, by Sam Lipsyte on Monday, Dec. 3 at 7 p.m.

The next meeting of the Noontime Book Group is on Friday, Dec. 14. The book to be discussed is The Road, by Cormac McCarthy.

Personal Cloud Computing E-vening
Wed., December 19
7 p.m. - 9 p.m.

What is it? How does it affect you personally? As we discuss the rise of "personal cloud computing," we'll explore how online resources you probably already use are part of the cloud. We'll also show you how to use the library's Chromebook notebook computers—available for library use—to share, browse, and get work done in the cloud.

Poetry Workshop

The next meeting of the Wayland Poetry workshop will be on Wednesday, December 12 at 2:00 p.m.

BOSTON TO BARCELONA: A FAMILY AT SEA

In 2005 Wayland resident Susie Klein, her husband, and their two sons, then aged 14 and 16, sailed their 41-foot sailboat across the Atlantic, stopping in the Azores, Gibraltar, Morocco, Spain and the Balearic Islands. The 65-day voyage was the prelude to a sabbatical year living and working in France. Come hear Susie tell about their exciting, and sometimes harrowing, adventures at sea. Susie's articles have been published in The New York Times, Los Angeles Times, Boston Globe, and SAIL.
Tuesday, December 4, 7:30 p.m.

Author Eric Jay Dolin When America First Met China Tuesday, January 15 at 7:00 p.m.

Author Eric Jay Dolin will give a talk on his new book, When America First Met China: An Exotic History of Tea, Drugs, and Money in the Age of Sail. Illuminating one of the least understood areas of American history, the book traces our fraught relationship with China, from its beginning after the American Revolution, through the end of the Civil War. It is a prescient fable for our time, one that surprisingly continues to shed light on our modern relationship with China. Peopled with fascinating characters-from the "Financier of the Revolution" Robert Morris to the Chinese emperor Qianlong, who considered foreigners inferior beings, When America First Met China is a page-turning saga that explores a time many years ago when the desire for trade and profit first brought America to China's door. The presentation uses beautiful images to create an exciting, narrated tour of highlights from the book.

ARTS/WAYLAND WINTER EXHIBIT

Members of Arts/Wayland will hold their annual Winter Exhibit in December and January in the Raytheon Room. Images in various media, including photography, will be displayed. There will be an artist reception, open to the public, from 2-5 p.m. on December 16.

FOYER EXHIBIT

Suzanne McMahon is a part-time freelance photographer and shoots concert photos for the music website Twangville.com. She also enjoys taking photos on Martha's Vineyard and Cape Cod. She has won a Boston Globe photo contest and been published in Washingtonian Magazine and the Takoma Park Gazette in Maryland. Suzanne is a social worker/school adjustment counselor.

Museum Passes

Have you ever reserved a museum pass online? You can do it on your own time, and even choose to get a reminder email to pick up your pass. Clicking on the name of the museum on the calendar will take you to the museum website. Go to www.waylandlibrary.org to get started. Of course, you can still reserve a museum pass over the phone at 508-358-2311, up to three weeks in advance.

The Friends of the WPL support memberships to our long list of museum affiliations. Free or subsidized passes are available for:
